

Winnisquam Echo

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2009

SERVING TILTON, NORTHFIELD, BELMONT & SANBORNTON, N.H.

FREE

Lakes Region dogs go Bananas

BELMONT — Hannah Banana Baskets of Belmont has announced its partnership with Happy Tails Dog Park of Belmont.

Hannah Banana Baskets will donate 10 percent of all orders generated to the Dog Park initiative for their fundraising efforts. “I am so excited about the partnership,” said Lisa Clutters, president of Happy Tails. “We love the idea in that it supports a local business. Kristina is wonderfully kind and the icing on the cake is she’s a loving dog mom too.”

Kristina McCassie of Hannah Banana Baskets has already geared up her Web site to handle orders. Customers can shop online at www.hannahbananabaskets.com and simply enter the code HAPPYTAILS at checkout.

Not an on-line shopper? Not to worry, says McCassie. “If you don’t see something on the Web site to fit your needs, Hannah Banana can create a basket with custom, personal touches at a price point that is decided by the customer,” she said.

COURTESY PHOTO

Man’s best friend basket

Phone orders are also eligible for the fundraising partnership too by calling 524-0078 and mentioning “HAPPY TAILS.” Hannah Banana Gift Baskets offers a wide variety of gift baskets for all occasions including special pet themed delights for dogs and dog parents alike. For more information on Happy Tails Dog Park of Belmont, please visit www.happytailsdog-parknh.org or call 369-2101.